Washington DC Super Lawyers® selected all three of the firm's partners to be included in its 2011 publication

The law firm is proud to announce that partners Ira Sherman, Joseph Cammarata and Allan M. Siegel were all selected to be included in the 2011 publication of Washington DC Super Lawyers®.

Only 5 percent of attorneys in the Washington, D.C. area are named to this elite list. The attorneys who received this honor were also featured in the May 1, 2011 edition of The Washington Post Magazine. The portion of the magazine featuring partners Sherman, Cammarata and Siegel is on the reverse side of this newsletter.

Super Lawyers® selects attorneys using a rigorous, multiphase rating process. Candidates are selected based on peer nominations and evaluations, and then the magazine conducts third-party research. The magazine evaluates each candidate on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. The magazine's stated objective is to create a credible, comprehensive, and diverse listing of outstanding lawyers that can be used as a resource for attorneys and consumers searching for counsel. Super Lawyers® magazine is published in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. The magazine reaches more than 13 million readers.

We would not have been able to achieve this recognition if it were not for our clients, who allow us to pursue their causes and fight for justice. We truly appreciate the trust and confidence you place in us.
